New With Us?

First of all, welcome! Thank you for joining us this weekend! Here are few tips to help your morning go smoother.

- Please fill out a connection card. Put it into the offering plate when it comes by, or into one of the drop boxes by the sanctuary entrances.
- Please don't feel obligated to participate in the offering. The offering is for members and regular attenders who consider RRC their home.
- All baptized followers of Christ, including children, are invited to participate in communion (first Sunday of every month). RRC uses grape juice and gluten-free bread.
- A prayer team is available at the front of the sanctuary after each service to pray with those who want an extra time of prayer.
- If you have children, they are welcome to remain with you throughout the service, or you can choose from different options:
 - KidLife Worship (3 years-3rd grade) - available during the worship service on the lower level. Check-in is in the Fellowship Hall, Room 100 (directly below the sanctuary). Children may start service there, or go after our opening music in the sanctuary.
 - KidLife Nursery (0-3 years) - Room 241 (upper level of gym).
 - Parent-Infant Room - available near the back of the sanctuary for fussy children and nursing mothers.
 - Children's bulletins and crayons are available near the lobby stairs.

What's Next?

If you want to become more connected to RRC, the next step is to simply show up. Regularly attending Sunday worship services is a great start. We also offer a variety of programs and activities throughout the week to help you grow in your relationship with Jesus and with others. You are welcome to check out our programs at any time. If you have any questions or need some suggestions, please contact the front office (616-866-2308, connect@rockfordrc.org).

If you are interested in membership, call the front office and we'll schedule you for our next Discovery Class.

Going Deeper: Humility and Hospitality by Emillie Clayton, Director of the Hospitality Ministry Team

I enjoy greeting and meeting new people. However, on a Sunday morning, one of the challenges I face is the awkward moment of not knowing if I have already met someone. This person may look familiar, but I cannot remember if I have met them and I certainly cannot remember their name. I have two choices; I could turn and walk away because I feel awkward and I do not know what to say, or I could be humble and greet the person anyway. A great phrase in a situation like this, "I don't know if I have met you before, my name is Emillie." Or "I am so glad that you are here, have we met before?" Saying these things requires humility, but demonstrates genuine care and hospitality. Ephesians 4:2 "Be completely humble and gentle; be patient, bearing with one another in love." It is very important to show how much we value people by remembering their names. But when we forget, as we all do, it is always better to err on the side of greeting the person. 1 Peter 4:8-9 "Above all, love each other deeply, because love covers over a multitude of sins. Offer hospitality without grumbling." I pray that Rockford Reformed Church can be a church of humble and hospitable people.

For a full listing of all of our events, announcements, volunteer needs, and more, be sure to sign up for the eBeacon, emailed every Friday. Contact the church office at connect@rockfordrc.org and ask to be put on the list. Paper copies are available for those without email.

Announcements

RRC @ Praise in the Park: Next week our worship team will be playing at Praise in the Park in downtown Rockford! Come out to support our team and represent our church to the community. Music starts at 6pm.

Table Talks: This summer, Pastor Tim will meet with one care group at a time after the worship service to share a bit of what we are up to during the transition and for you to ask questions. If you are away on the day assigned to your care group, you are welcome to join us on another day. No meeting today.

After-Service Socials: Join us in the gym following service each Sunday this summer for a chance to meet, greet, and eat!

Adult Fellowship: Since the first Wednesday in July is the 4th, there will be no Adult Fellowship meeting in July.

Directories: Be sure to pick up your directory from your mail folder in the office hallway! Send updates/corrections to laura@rockfordrc.org.
