Experiencing Life in Community

Series: "One Body, One Purpose"

Ephesians 4:15–16 • Pastor Paul Bradford

The Bible expects and exhorts us to initiate authentic life-giving relationships.

The Bible expects and exhorts us to meet together to receive truth and encouragement.

The Bible expects and exhorts us to communicate the grace and life of Christ to one another.

Our Response: The Bible expects and exhorts me to be in life-giving relationships with others in Christ's body so that we might build one another up in love.

Life Application Questions

- Are you giving and receiving love and encouragement in Christian community, or are you being an island? Who might God be calling you to connect with this week?
- Are you making worship, small groups, and prayer with your local church a priority in your life? Where might God be calling you to make changes in your life priorities?
- Do you seek to express the grace and love of Christ in every personal interaction with others?
