

Rockford Reformed Church
John 6:25-35, 48-59 - "Bread of Life"
8/5/18 – Pastor Tim Meendering

Questions for family/small group discussions:

1. We see that Jesus offers up a quality of life that is very different. How would you describe what Jesus provides in contrast to a life without him?
2. Read John 6:26-27. What are some of the food or things that we pursue apart from Jesus that will ultimately spoil or never satisfy?
3. Throughout your typical week or day, what do you most often find yourself thinking or daydreaming about? How would you answer this question? I would be living if I could just have _____ . Would that really satisfy you?
4. We said that Jesus gives us life through the truth of the _____. What are some ways that you can keep "eating" and soaking in this truth?
5. Read John 6:33 and 35. _____ is found in the person of Jesus. Would you describe your relationship with God as a personal or business relationship? Do you relate to him more out of duty or out of delight? Do you delight in God's love for you? Do you tell God that you love him?
6. Jesus came to hunger and suffer so that your hunger can forever be satisfied. When you meditate on how Jesus acted for you, how does that change you?
7. Receiving the bread requires a _____, daily process of feeding on Jesus. We feed on Jesus as our bread through three things: _____, the _____, and _____. Read John 4:34. If this is Jesus' food, then this should also be our food. How would a personal relationship of love make a difference for obedience?

For further study and progress: "Hunger for God" by John Piper.

Rockford Reformed Church
John 6:25-35, 48-59 - "Bread of Life"
8/5/18 – Pastor Tim Meendering

Questions for family/small group discussions:

1. We see that Jesus offers up a quality of life that is very different. How would you describe what Jesus provides in contrast to a life without him?
2. Read John 6:26-27. What are some of the food or things that we pursue apart from Jesus that will ultimately spoil or never satisfy?
3. Throughout your typical week or day, what do you most often find yourself thinking or daydreaming about? How would you answer this question? I would be living if I could just have _____ . Would that really satisfy you?
4. We said that Jesus gives us life through the truth of the _____. What are some ways that you can keep "eating" and soaking in this truth?
5. Read John 6:33 and 35. _____ is found in the person of Jesus. Would you describe your relationship with God as a personal or business relationship? Do you relate to him more out of duty or out of delight? Do you delight in God's love for you? Do you tell God that you love him?
6. Jesus came to hunger and suffer so that your hunger can forever be satisfied. When you meditate on how Jesus acted for you, how does that change you?
7. Receiving the bread requires a _____, daily process of feeding on Jesus. We feed on Jesus as our bread through three things: _____, the _____, and _____. Read John 4:34. If this is Jesus' food, then this should also be our food. How would a personal relationship of love make a difference for obedience?

For further study and progress: "Hunger for God" by John Piper.